ORDER REQUIRING PRIORITIZED CLAIM TERMS

The Court enters this Order sua sponte. In an effort to most efficiently manage the upcoming Markman hearing, the Court ORDERS the parties to identify and prioritize eight (8) terms from Plaintiff and 8 from the Defendants, and then file a Joint Notice with the Court by February 13, 2013 at noon reflecting such selections. The Court has allotted three hours for the Markman hearing, which will be structured such that the designated terms selected by the parties pursuant to this Order will be argued on a term-by-term basis as the Court directs.

The parties should focus their arguments primarily on the disputed claim terms and each side will be limited to not more than 10 minutes per side to make initial introductory remarks or offer an overview of the case as a whole. Any terms not addressed during the Markman hearing will be decided based on the parties written submissions. The Court directs the parties to continue their efforts with regard to narrowing the number of issues in this case. The Court also directs the parties to provide notice to the Court as soon as any dispute regarding a claim term is resolved, either by agreement or withdrawal.

So ORDERED and SIGNED this 11th day of February, 2013.

RODNEY GILSTRAP
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
